

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 07:18 PM

Comments Received :

Referring to someone as the gender they identify as, and using their pronouns, is simply a matter of respect. That's it. Gender markers on a passport do not matter AT ALL when it comes to my safety. Leave the matter of sex and gender between the individual and their healthcare provider. The government does not need to know what is in anyone's pants unless it's an unauthorized weapon.