

Author Full Name : Jessica Penney

Received Date : 02/19/2025 07:28 PM

Comments Received :

Transgender people, whether you agree with their gender identity or not, are US citizens and have the fundamental right to renew their passports. It is unconstitutional to hold people captive in their own country. The right to freedom of movement is protected by the Privileges and Immunities Clause of the U.S. Constitution. It is also a part of the UN Declaration of Human Rights.