

Author Full Name : Masani McGee

Received Date : 02/19/2025 07:22 PM

Comments Received :

Transgender and intersex individuals exist and are citizens of the United States. Refusing to acknowledge the sex or gender of all citizens denies them due process under the 5th and 14th amendments. Having the option of choosing "X" as a designation on US passports was barely sufficient as it was; removing the option entirely is unacceptable. These proposed changes and the executive order they stem from deny people their rights, and in no way should ever be implemented.