

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 07:55 PM

Comments Received :

Millions of people have had name changes in the United States, most of them married cisgender women. Disallowing name changes out of a spiteful desire to discriminate against a minority population (trans individuals) is not only infantile, it will disproportionately affect cisgender women.