

Author Full Name : Hannah Steffes

Received Date : 02/19/2025 08:02 PM

Comments Received :

Having only options for Male and Female does not account for all possible forms of "biological sex at birth", as it leaves out the roughly 2% of the population who are intersex.

Removing the option for non-binary people to select an X marker for their passport will lead to traveling being more uncomfortable and less safe for them.