

Author Full Name : Tao Sum

Received Date : 02/19/2025 08:00 PM

Comments Received :

Passport applications should reflect the current sex and gender of the applicant to facilitate international travel. As passports did not even have gender markers until 1977, I think we can conclude that their presence is there to provide additional clarification to the identity status of the holder. And as male and female markers were helpful in the past, so to will additional markers for transgender and non-binary individuals.