

Author Full Name : Steph Cherrywell

Received Date : 02/19/2025 08:22 PM

Comments Received :

Please do not make any changes to the passport process which will make it harder for trans and nonbinary people to get passports reflecting their actual names and genders. In addition to the fact that this is messing with people's abilities to just live their own lives in ways that aren't anyone else's business, the proposed changes also violate the enjoinder currently on the state by US District courts as part of the Zzyym vs. Blinken case. Thanks for your time!