

Author Full Name : Moira AshleighReceived Date : 02/19/2025 08:51 PMComments Received :

We know that there are more than two genders because biologically speaking, intersexed individuals do exist, as as defined by the EO, there are also people born infertile as well. Trying to make humans fit into pre-conceived notions of correctness is simply an uneducated mistake. It hurts no one for people to have the correct chosen gender on their passport, the gender they are living. In fact this is the right way to treat people, allow them to be who they are.