

Author Full Name : Danielle Ballantyne

Received Date : 02/19/2025 08:48 PM

Comments Received :

When we start placing restrictions aside from those implemented for security and safety purposes on which US citizens can and cannot obtain proof of that citizenship, we open the door to denying any citizen any documentation for any arbitrary reason any administration deems warrants that restriction. All citizens are supposed to be equal under the laws of the United States. If that stops being true for any citizen of this country, it stops being true for our country entirely.