

Author Full Name : Elliana Clermont

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:17 PM

Comments Received :

It is important to allow citizens to indicate the gender that they are in life, not necessarily what they were assigned at birth, in order for passports to be truly accurate in representing that person. This is not a place for anti-trans ideology. People who transition often update their IDs and birth certificates to reflect their gender and not allowing it on passports would only serve to confuse and make it more difficult for these citizens.