

Author Full Name : Samantha Oddi

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:37 PM

Comments Received :

I strongly oppose this change to the passport application process. It is based on a cruel, discriminatory, and illegal executive order, and it will only create more paperwork and chaos. A method of identification needs to be accurate above all else, and forcing a citizen to list their gender assigned at birth when that does not match who they are, that is an inaccuracy. We have all changed since we were babies, our passports should not be dictated by our infant statistics.