

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:22 PM

Comments Received :

The decision to remove access to gender marker changes in service of forwarding a conservative agenda removes the functionality of the gender marker on the passport. Should someone present what someone considers differently from stereotypical gendered presentation it may cause confusion for the agent attempting to verify identity. Rather, allowing such changes may help smooth over confusion based on how someone is presenting.