

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:22 PM

Comments Received :

I am very concerned about the changes, as sex assigned at birth may not be aligned with the individuals sex or gender. Intersex individuals may have genitals that do not match their chromosomal or hormonal profiles, what sex should they be classified as? If you use the definition of making specific gametes, what about folks that are infertile or women after menopause? These new changes lack understanding of biological reality.