

Author Full Name : Mary Buckner

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:51 PM

Comments Received :

The proposed changes to passport gender markers is unnecessary and reinforces a flawed definition of sex that is inconsistent with medical consensus. Insisting that a marker matches a birth certificate rather than the lived experience of the holder does not aid in the identification of holder. This change will result in difficulties for Americans, including those that the executive order claims to protect.