

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 09:48 PM

Comments Received :

There is nothing wrong with the current functioning of our passport system, and altering it to make it so people have to put the gender they identify with at birth is going to needlessly complicate the passport issuing process and negatively harm American citizens. I completely disagree with this change and urge the Trump administration to abandon their cruel crusade against gender minorities and trans individuals.