

Author Full Name : Phyllis Davis

Received Date : 02/19/2025 10:11 PM

Comments Received :

I would like trans people to be allowed to have their passport match the gender identity that they identify as even if it does not match the sex they were identified as at birth. Science acknowledges that gender is on a spectrum and is not just limited by physical sex characteristics. Having their passports not reflect their gender identity will create confusion for governmental workers and could put the lives of transgendsr people in danger.