This is overtly a terrible idea.

-This discriminates against trans people

-This discriminates against intersex people, who may not have a sex assigned at birth or may develop sex characteristics that don't match their sex assigned at birth

-This is going to be a confusing morass for our TSA and customs agents who are going to get sex markers on passports that don't remotely match the person who is standing in front of them or their photo.

-The legal challenges to this are going to be a waste of taxpayer dollars.

-Having gender or sex markers on passports is stupid in the first place, there is a photo of the person right there, you don't need their gender and CERTAINLY not their sex at birth to confirm it's the right person.
