

Author Full Name : Meagan Keziah

Received Date : 02/19/2025 10:24 PM

Comments Received :

I urge the decision making body against making this revision. This change will cause undue burden and difficulty for many citizens applying, as the categories for sex markers in the revisions to not define genders accurately, biologically speaking. Please keep in mind intersexed individuals do exist, and as defined by the executive order, there are also people born infertile as well.

Thank you for taking citizen public commentary into consideration.