

Author Full Name : Miriam

Received Date : 02/19/2025 10:23 PM

Comments Received :

I'm very concerned about people who need to get their name changed or have data corrected on their passports. Many people change their names and that needs to be respected. Adults must be able to identify as they themselves see themselves. Anything else is madness. Gender s not a reliable identity factor for identity resolution. The proposed changes will increase processing time and reduce the ability of State Department officials to make reasonable accommodations.