

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:05 PM

Comments Received :

I would like to encourage the federal government to respect the identities of applicants for passports. The right to self expression is codified under the first amendment, and living a life under the gender identity that one conceptualizes oneself as is an example of the American tradition of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.