

Author Full Name : Stephanie Wargin

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:37 PM

Comments Received :

I am very concerned about the constitutionality of the requested changes to U.S. Passports. I do not think it is right or constitutional for the federal government to define a person's gender for them. I believe this to be a personal freedom. I am currently deeply concerned about the American public's data security and identity information and do not think major changes should be applied in such a turbulent time and without Congressional approval. Please reconsider changes.