

Author Full Name : Brenna English

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:30 PM

Comments Received :

This proposed change wastes tax-payer money and provides no additional security to the American passport system. It only serves to discriminate against trans individuals and will open the government up to litigation, ultimately costing the tax-payer even more money. And for what purpose? To make a few people's lives harder? That isn't what the government should be spending its time and money on.