

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:26 PM

Comments Received :

I strongly oppose the gender marker policy. I believe people have every right to choose the gender marker they identify with the most. This country is supposed to be a symbol of freedom, so what sense does it make to bar people from their freedom to accurately identify themselves? People can change the names they were born with, their hair, their bodies, why not their gender too?