

Author Full Name : Charles H

Received Date : 02/20/2025 02:11 AM

Comments Received :

How a person chooses to identify their gender should not limit their access to a passport, and it is not the government's place to take such things away from U.S citizens for what can only be seen as bigotry. Let people identify on their passports as whatever gender they wish for as an American I see no harm in doing so, but see great threat to personal liberties if such discrimination is allowed.