

Author Full Name : Emily Baker

Received Date : 02/20/2025 01:57 AM

Comments Received :

Transgender Americans must be able to apply for a passport that reflects their gender identity. Denying them the ability to do so makes them less safe in foreign countries, more likely to be stopped, detained or searched, and does not provide the basic dignity we expect of our government. This change is an affront to American values.