

Author Full Name : Emily Baker

Received Date : 02/20/2025 01:55 AM

Comments Received :

Transgender Americans need their passport to reflect their gender identity so that they can be safe while traveling abroad. A passport that only reflects their sex at birth will make them more unsafe, more likely to be stopped or detained in foreign countries, and less likely to travel at all. It is an affront to American values.