

Author Full Name : Emily Baker

Received Date : 02/20/2025 01:53 AM

Comments Received :

Changing a gender marker when renewing a passport is an essential step to respecting the dignity of transgender people when traveling abroad, and also ensure that they can be safe by having matching documentation. Removing this possibility from the passport renewal application is naked bigotry and does not represent us as Americans.