To Whom It May Concern:

Despite a vicious campaign of unfounded fear mongering and misinformation, the fact remains that transgender people are regular people. We are not guilty of any kind of deceit, nor are we prone to criminality in any way. A cursory glance at the actual data surrounding the misinformation regarding trans people shows clearly that we do not pose an inherent threat to anyone.

Barring people who have taken necessary medical steps to change their secondary sex characteristics under doctor's supervision from changing their legal documentation to reflect that does not help anyone, in fact it only creates more danger for transgender Americans who are tax paying, law-abiding citizens. It is essential that this policy change abiding the President's unlawful EO regarding transgender people be disavowed.

Thank you,
A concerned citizen
