

Author Full Name : Caleb Nordgren

Received Date : 02/20/2025 12:30 AM

Comments Received :

Leaving aside the issue that refusing to allow trans people (or intersex people) to use the gender marker that most closely corresponds to their gender identity is bigoted and therefore wrong, this issue has already been decided in court (Zzyym v. Blinken). The executive order this proposed change is based on is unconstitutional and must be rejected.