

Author Full Name : Larisa TraleReceived Date : 02/20/2025 12:18 AMComments Received :

Passports provide legal identification as well as privileges of movement. It is essential that these documents reflect people's identities, not the assumptions others make about them. For this reason, please ensure that the gender markers and other identifying features on US passports match people's identities. Trans people deserve freedom of travel as much as anyone else, and should not have to travel under documents that do not match their lives and identities.