Follow real science. Gender is not sex, and neither thing is fully and immutably binary. Nobody's making anyone transition in any capacity, so it's wrong to force social detransition. Cis people get cosmetic surgeries to affirm gender or boost confidence all the time. Trans erasure is the only reason anyone thinks it's "new", there is evidence trans and non-binary people existed and transitioned socially in ancient civilizations. Just because many trans people either had to closet or stealth doesn't mean they were fine with it or that it was the right thing to do, see the graph of left-handed people correlating with people treating them equally, rather than harming them or treating them as evil. This doesn't feel like a safe place. People should matter more than taking the high road or monetary benefits in exchange for compliance. Please expose the unconstitutional behavior of the current administration. Human autonomy is at risk.
