

Author Full Name : Larisa Trale

Received Date : 02/20/2025 12:13 AM

Comments Received :

Please ensure that trans individuals can still receive US passports that match their gender identities. Identification that matches a person's lived experience is important for their freedom of movement as well as public safety. There is no good reason to require that a person's passport should reflect the sex that someone else assigned them at their birth.