

Author Full Name : Parker Jones

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:55 PM

Comments Received :

Trans people have the right to identifying documentation that reflects their identified gender. Trans history spans human history, and these individuals have the rights of every other citizen of this country to documentation that will allow them to travel safely under the auspices of this country's protections.