I think it's absolutely terrible that the application process has changed since the start of the new administration. Prohibiting trans and non-binary and gender non-conforming people from being able to apply for a passport that matches who they are is doing nothing to "protect women and children" or however it's being spun. It's executive action based on hatred and discrimination, something that is blatantly unconstitutional. That is not how our country should function. Please stop punishing innocent people in order to throw red meat to your political base. It's cruel and pointless. We should be better than this. I miss when we were better than this.
