

Author Full Name : Jessica Guntharp

Received Date : 02/19/2025 11:40 PM

Comments Received :

The federal government has no right denying a person's gender identity nor name change in regard to passports. the proper paperwork has been done, these people cannot be denied proof of their identity. People exist outside of a gender binary since the beginning of time and will continue to do so until the end.