

Author Full Name : Linda Jeffers

Received Date : 02/20/2025 05:22 AM

Comments Received :

The US passport provides critical information to identify the individual possessing it. By not allowing the individual to accurately identify themselves, as they grow up and change over time, renders the passport less effective. Self-identified gender markers make the passport MORE accurate. Using name/gender as identified on a birth certificate is as foolish as a 50 year old using an official signature that was submitted when they were 18 years old.