

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 06:32 AM

Comments Received :

I'm a middle-aged transgender American and reverting my passport gender marker to 'F' could adversely affect my ability to travel as my passport would no longer match my other identification documents containing a gender marker. This is a serious safety concern, especially as I had legally changed my name during my transition more than a decade ago.