Arbitrarily changing info on passport to reflect 'sex assigned at birth' violates the right to travel and right to privacy under the Due Process Clause of the U.S. Constitution, violates the Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Constitution, and compels speech from transgender, nonbinary, and intersex passport holders in violation of their First Amendment rights. It creates opportunities for confusion, discrimination, and harassment against transgender, nonbinary, and intersex individuals every time they attempt to use their passport.
