

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 06:52 AM

Comments Received :

Arbitrarily changing the designation on passports to 'sex assigned at birth' violates the right to travel and right to privacy under the Due Process Clause of the U.S. Constitution, violates the Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Constitution, and compels speech from transgender, nonbinary, and intersex passport holders in violation of their First Amendment rights. This change would create opportunities for harassment and harm every time a transgender, nonbinary, or intersex person uses their passport.