

Author Full Name : Lisa Bos

Received Date : 02/20/2025 07:23 AM

Comments Received :

Regarding the collection of the applicant's biological sex at birth, I believe this requirement makes women, especially trans women, as a whole less safe and violates the civil rights of applicants. I believe this requirement is based on incorrect understanding of science regarding trans individuals and does them great harm. It also appears the timeline for the application update process violates law.