

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:54 AM

Comments Received :

There should be no limitations on passport name changes or gender marker updates. Passports are what we use to ID ourselves as American citizens when traveling abroad, and that document should accurately match all of our other documentation. Besides, if the USA "doesn't want trans people here" then perhaps allowing them to travel internationally will get his mission accomplished faster. Just saying.