

Author Full Name : William Emerson

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:48 AM

Comments Received :

I am concerned that these policy changes will do harm to trans people attempting travel and participating in the protections of American citizenship.

Any changes to the way American citizens are able to document their citizenship status must be defined by Legislative branch of the US Government and adjudicated by the Judicial branch. Making these changes by Executive Decree is not Constitutional.