

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:31 AM

Comments Received :

It is important to the very real community of transgender Americans that they continue to have the opportunity to change the gender marker on their passport to the gender that most closely matches their understanding of themselves.

Similarly, intersex people do exist, and require flexibility for their markers as well. (Recall Zzyym v. Blinken.)

Thank you for your consideration.