

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:24 AM

Comments Received :

I don't think gender should be required for passports. They already have photos. That is personal health information. Everyone should be protected from revealing this. Its already a valid form of ID. I already have social security number and birth certificate. Why put it on a passport?