

Author Full Name : Hugh Davis

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:59 AM

Comments Received :

I am strongly against the proposed changes to gender markers on U.S. passports. Requiring applicants to provide their biological sex on their passport applications and having that information reflected on the passport does not "protect" anyone; quite the opposite, it can only serve to harass and harm transgender Americans. It's another petty cruelty heaped upon a group that already puts up with far more of that than anyone should have to.