

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:47 AM

Comments Received :

I am strongly against these changes. Part of being an American is the right to self-determination and the right to control one's own future. Restricting citizens from exercising their rights as citizens means they are not citizens, but subjects. It is not the right of the State Department or any other executive agency—or any other branch of government—to restrict who people are permitted to be.