

Author Full Name : Jennifer Lauchlan

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:44 AM

Comments Received :

Transgender individuals should be able to get a passport consistent with their gender identity. The recent executive order claiming that there are only two biological sexes is in direct contrast to decades of scientific research showing that gender is far more complex than is apparent on the surface. Furthermore, Americans have been able to get passports with F, M, and X since 2022. Revoking this is a violation of constitutional protections of freedom.