

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 10:18 AM

Comments Received :

The purpose of a passport is identification. Barring people from updating information such as sex change and name changes means that they will have inaccurate documents that cannot serve as valid identification. If someone presents entirely as male but has “female” on their ID, that ID is effectively useless as it contains inaccurate information. These policies are not only discriminatory, but also harm the legitimacy of passports as a form of identification.