

Author Full Name : Tom Miksch

Received Date : 02/20/2025 10:01 AM

Comments Received :

Requiring trans people to put their birth sex on their passport is simply an act of cruelty. Just because government documents will say they're their sex assigned at birth doesn't mean they aren't who they say they are. All this will do is further deny their rights to be themselves, which is known to lead to higher suicide rates in the trans community. Please let our fellow Americans be themselves, as it doesn't affect anyone but the trans person themselves