

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 10:27 AM

Comments Received :

Gender markers indicating the individual's sex are useless for identification, especially if said individual has changed their body drastically. This will only create confusion and foster discrimination. Therefore, individuals should be able to change the gender marker on their passport.